Purpose of Zoning

The purpose of zoning is to locate particular land uses where they are most appropriate, considering public utilities, road access, and the established development pattern. In addition to categorizing land by uses such as residential, commercial, and industrial, a zoning ordinance also specifies such details as building setback lines, the height and bulk of buildings, the size and location of open spaces, and the intensity to which the land may be developed.

Need for Rezoning

When a property owner wants to use land in a way that is not permitted by the zoning of their property, the owner must request to rezone the property to a classification which permits the desired use. The request is first heard by Planning Commission, who then makes a recommendation to City Council. Generally, rezonings are considered justifiable if they meet a list of criteria provided in section 362(b) of the Zoning Ordinance. Those criteria include, but is not limited to:

- The rezoning is consistent with the Master Plan;
- The rezoning is consistent with the purpose of the Zoning Ordinance;
- The rezoning will correct an error or oversight in the Zoning Ordinance.

Applying for Rezoning

If you are the owner or option holder of a piece of property and wish to petition for rezoning, you begin the process by submitting the attached application.

Review Process and Timeline

Once your application is received, staff will schedule a public hearing. If your application is complete and received by 4:00 p.m. on the third Wednesday of the month, it will be heard in front of Planning Commission at their regular meeting at 7:00 p.m. on the third Wednesday of the following month. During the intervening time, staff will review the application, notify neighbors within 300' by first-class mail, and place a notice in the Washtenaw Legal News.

At their meeting, Planning Commission will hold a public meeting, where the public is invited to address them about the proposed rezoning. They also hear a staff report about the rezoning's appropriateness and invite the applicant to speak. With the information they gather at this meeting, they make a recommendation to City Council.

City Council will generally hear the rezoning request and the Planning Commission recommendation at their regularly scheduled meeting on the second Tuesday of the following month. Another public hearing will be held at this meeting, advertised again in the Washtenaw Legal News, and the rezoning is addressed as the first reading of an ordinance change. The ordinance must be read and approved a second time before it is considered adopted. The rezoning takes effect 30 days after adoption. This 30 day period allows for a protest under §122-363.
